

NATIONAL TRAINING INSTITUTE ON PROTECTION ORDER PRACTICE FOR ATTORNEYS AND ADVOCATES VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

Presented by
The National Center on Protection Orders and Full Faith & Credit (NCPOFFC)

In collaboration with
Legal Resource Center on Violence Against Women (LRC)
Southwest Center for Law & Policy (SWCLAP)
Stalking Prevention, Awareness and Resources Center (SPARC) of AEquitas

Institute Training Objectives

As a result of this training, participants will be better able to:

- Provide survivor-centered advocacy and representation to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking.
- Apply advocacy skills to assist survivors seeking protection orders.
- Tailor legal representation and advocacy skills to meet the individual needs of each victim and enhance survivor safety.
- Recognize barriers that impact individuals seeking and enforcing protection orders and design advocacy to respond appropriately.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2016-TA-AX-K052 awarded by the Office on Violence Against Women, U.S. Department of Justice. The opinions, findings, conclusions, and recommendations expressed in this program are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Department of Justice, Office on Violence Against Women.
