Learning Objectives

1. Distinguish the basic structure of a college's responsibility in responding to gender-based violence on campus to that of a community's criminal legal system.
2. Acquire knowledge of current issues impacting in gender-based violence on campus and how these may influence a CCR's medium- and long-term planning.
3. Draw up a concrete plan to integrate the particular issues of college victims of gender-based violence into the work that your CCR does.

Colleges' responsibility to protect and respond

What are people talking about on campus?

- Impacts of Nassar
- Sexual Harassment in the Academy Survey
- Changes in Title IX enforcement
- Serving sexual violence survivors with disabilities
- Impact of #metoo on campus, and vice versa!
- And so much more...

Sexual Harassment in the Academy: Survey

What We Can Learn From Campus Climate Surveys

Let's make a plan!

Integrating campus issues into your CCR:

1. Learn about campuses
In your jurisdiction
2. Communicate with campus officials and check in with students, staff and faculty
3. Coordinate work when possible
4. Plan medium- and long-term work to effectuate change
